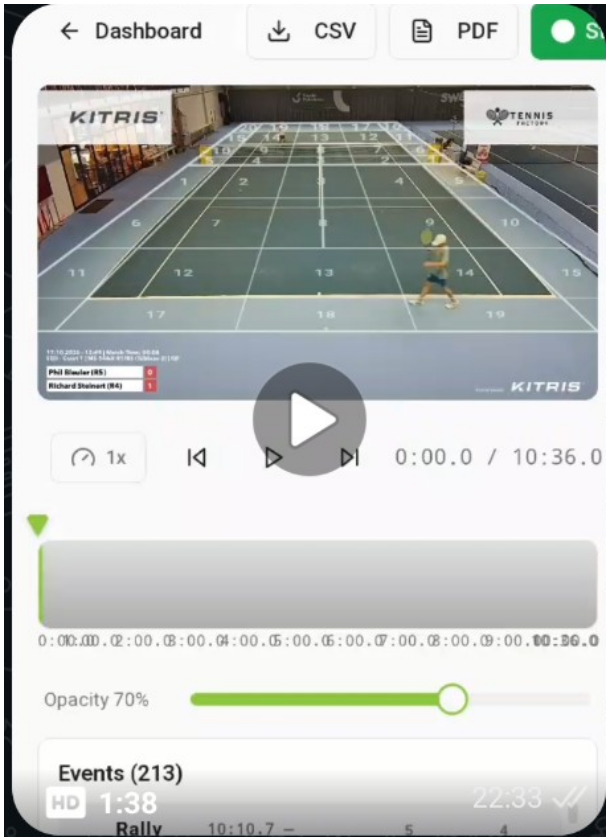
HOW YOUR ANALYSIS WORKS

From match video to clear tactical decisions.



01 MATCH VIDEO + ZONES

Original court zones are overlaid on the video.

Player positions and target zones become visible.

02 RALLIES + EVENTS

Ball landings, positions and shot types are recorded with time stamps.

03 AI + COACHING

Recorded decisions are turned into specific tactical recommendations.

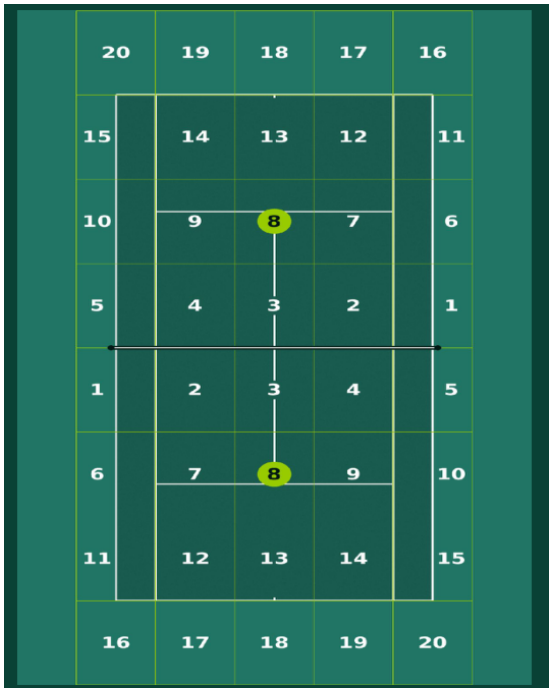
WON: EXPLOIT OPEN SPACE

Rally 2 | Video 01:48.1–01:56.1 | Actual example shot sequence



SHOT SEQUENCE

01:51.2	Return	Z17 → Z8
01:52.9	Groundstroke	Z12 → Z12
01:54.6	Groundstroke	Z17 → Z7

AI COACHING RECOMMENDATION

The opponent is deep in zone 13. A short ball to zone 7 exploits the open space in front.

Training goal: repeat this situation deliberately.

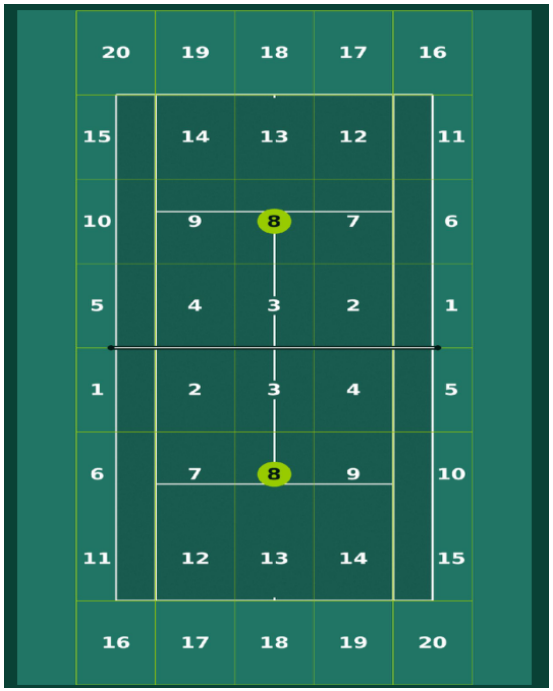
LOST: MOVE THE OPPONENT MORE

Rally 5 | Video 02:53.1–03:11.8 | Actual example shot sequence



SHOT SEQUENCE | PLAYER POSITION → TARGET ZONE

03:01.3	Z17 → Z13
03:02.7	Z18 → Z7
03:04.3	Z17 → Z13
03:05.9	Z17 → Z7
03:07.3	Z17 → Z12
03:08.6	Z17 → Z7

AI COACHING RECOMMENDATION

From a controlled position in Z17: target deep, wide Z14 when open. Move the opponent laterally.

TURN YOUR MATCH INTO A TRAINING PLAN

The result: clear insights you can take onto the court.

01 RECOGNIZE OPEN SPACE

When your opponent is deep, use the space in front.

02 VARY YOUR SHOT PLACEMENT

Play deep and wide to create new openings.

03 REVIEW DECISIONS ON VIDEO

Review specific rallies and practise alternatives.

MORE THAN NUMBERS: YOUR PERSONAL NEXT STEP.

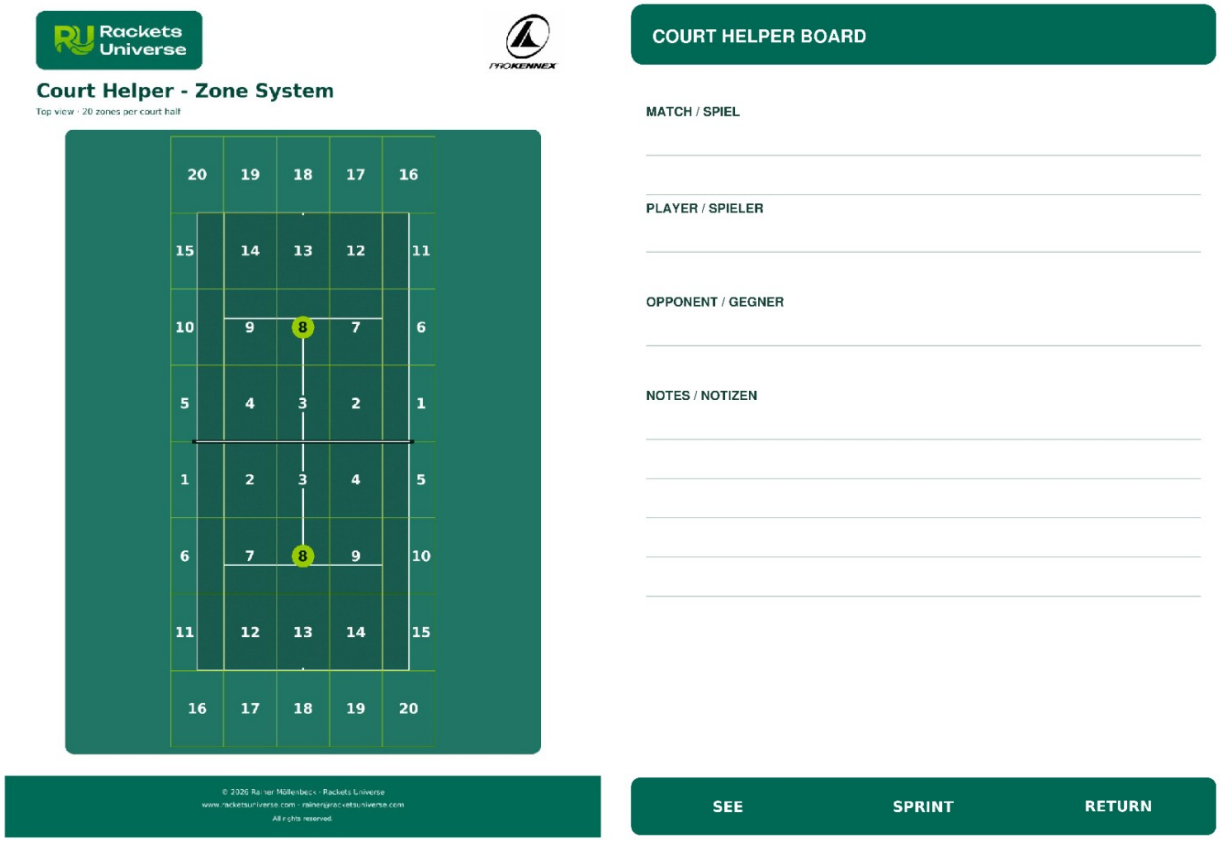
FROM ANALYSIS TO COURT

The zone coaching board links digital insights to on-court training.



COACHING-BOARD

Discuss patterns using court zones,

mark shot directions,

identify target areas

and record training goals.

EXAMPLE FROM THE ANALYSIS

Opponent is deep in Z13.

A short ball to Z7 exploits

the open space in front.

Plan it on the board.

Then practise it on court.
